

Casey A. Holtz
drholtz@caseyholtzphd.com

Casey Holtz is a licensed psychologist in private practice in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Casey provides psychological evaluations, individual and family therapy, collaborative child specialist and mediation services for a broad spectrum of child and family concerns. His focus is on supporting children and families as they adjust to parent separation, divorce, and other significant life changes. Casey has an academic appointment with the Psychology Department at Wisconsin Lutheran College; he teaches child development, psychological counseling, and other child/family courses. Casey is an active researcher with an interest in early identification and intervention of child behavioral concerns. He is a consultant to teachers and schools on matters related to child development, parenting, and behavioral management. Casey serves on the board of directors for the Collaborative Family Law Council of Wisconsin. Casey has provided trainings for attorneys, mental health practitioners and judges including at the Wisconsin State Supreme Court Judicial College.

Diane S. Diel
ddiel@diellaw.com

Diane Diel is a family lawyer in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She is a Past President of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals and of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the current Treasurer of the Milwaukee, Wisconsin Association of Women Lawyers Foundation (2007- ). She is a current member of the IACP's Ethics and Standards Committee and is a co-chair of the IACP Ethics' Rewrite Task Force. She is a member of the Ethics Committee of the State Bar of Wisconsin. Diane is a past Chair of the Collaborative Family Law Council of Wisconsin and served on an ongoing basis on the CFLCW board as Training Chair and on its board of directors for over ten years. Diane is a frequent lecturer on ethics, and has provided consultation and training in the collaborative process as well as on the use and presentation of the IACP Basic Training curriculum. Diane has participated in and presented at numerous European conferences and programs, and she is committed to supporting the growth of collaborative practice worldwide.

Susan A. Hansen
sah@h-hlaw.com

Susan Hansen practices family law specializing in collaborative practice and mediation. Her past positions include: President of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals (IACP), Chair of the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin and Co-chair of the Public Education Committee of the Collaborative Family Law Council of Wisconsin. Susan assisted in drafting state practice guidelines and ethical standards for child advocates. She has frequently presented and written on family law financial and children's issues for judges, attorneys, educators, and mental health and financial professionals. She has provided training in both mediation and collaborative practice in the United States and Europe. Susan practices a client-centered, problem-solving approach to family law issues and supports working in an interdisciplinary process to provide the greatest value and long-term benefits to clients. Susan is also the co-founder of the recently opened Family Mediation Center. For more information, visit www.h-hlaw.com or www.familymediationcenter.org.